Campaign Newspaper, under the above title. It will be devoted to the maintenance of genuine republican principles as avowed and practised by the great WHIG PARTY of the United States; to the preservation of the NATIONAL Union, and of the Rights of the States and the RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE under that Union; and in an especial manner to the election of GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, as the nominee of the Whig National Convention, to the Presidency of this Republic.

It will be the agreeable duty of the editor to dwell and to descant upon the merits of a man around whose brow are entwined the laurels gathered on many a victorious field. During the long period of forty years his talents, his valor, and his humanity have nobly illustrated his country's honor; and the patriotic masses, the toiling millions of our widely-extended country, will, on the seventh of November next, arise in their power and majesty to bestow their suffrages upon their honored fellow-citizen-the hero, the patriot, and sage—and to proclaim THE GRATITUDE OF A REPUBLIC!

TERMS:

THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE will be published once a week-from the third week of June until the third week of November-at fifty cents.

Postmasters and others acting as voluntary agents, who may send five or more names, are authorized to reserve twenty-five per cent. for their trouble, or the advantage of this deduction may be shared by all the members of a club; and for each ten subscribers, on these terms, an eleventh copy will be also sent.

The notes of all specie-paying banks, gold, silver, and letter-stamps, will be received in pay-

Messrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stemach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

Mesers. Mortimer & Mowbray: Mrs. Elizabeth Bagwell is a lady of the highest respectability, wealthy and influential. The cure in her case speaks volumes in favor of this wonderful Tincture. Several other persons we have heard of have derived great benefit from its use in our county. We are entirely out of the article, and have daily anxious inquiries to know when we will receive another supply. We expect large sales of it from the present demand, and want you to send us a box as soon as possible.

Yours,

Mr. J. E. Bolish—Dear Sir: While 1 am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that 1 have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

IS BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME:
ITS utility is beyond comparison with any other farming implement now in use. It takes the seed from the field, leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve scres per day. The fingers, or teeth, catch all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and throw them back into the box, which will cross a twenty-acre field without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning, thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the seed. This machine comes so low that every furner will have it, and pays the manufacturer 300 per cent.

E. WHEELER, Agent for Washington CROSS KEYS, WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, CAMDEN CO., N. J., September 4, 1851.

We, the undersigned, do certify that we have seen Mr Krauser's Patent Clover Harvoster in operation, and it has given perfect satisfaction. It has gathered many of the farmers' clover in this neighborhood—it is all that Mr. Krau ser and his bills represent it to be. The farmers have giver one-half for gathering and threshing.

Long-a-Coming, October 7, 1851.

This is to certify that Mr. G. J. Naylor has gathered clover off of a sixteen-acre field of mine, which has been pastured two months with ten head of cattle, and it produced six bushlels and a half and one peck of seed. I gave him two-thirds for gathering and cleaning. I think his machine is first-rate, and answers all the purpose that is intended.

NEHEMIAH NICHOLSON The following points out the profitable nature of the HARVESTER.—
KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HARVESTER.—
We have conversed with a number of Farmers, and they are of opinion that there are at least 3,000 acres in each township in Camden or Gloucester county, New Jersey. Admitting there are but 1,000, it is said that each acre will yield from 1½ to 3 bushels. Reducing it to a cortainty of yielding but 1 bushel per acre, what will it cost to gather and thresh 1,000 acres?

Incidental expenses.....

culation. Perhaps no invention offers greater inducements for a profitable investment than the Harvester. For an enterprising young man, of good business habits, a large sum o money could without doubt be realized from the sale orights in the different States of the Union not yet dispose of. By calling at this office, it can be demonstrated satisfactorily that men of moderate capital could not choose a better or more money-paying business.

Those who wish to see a model of this celebrated farming implement, and the satisfactory manure; which it consectes implement, and the satisfactory manner in which it operates can do so by calling at E. WHEELER'S, Opposite Browns' Hotel.

The nomination of Gen. Scott has been received in different parts of the country, by his own party, with much of the same feeling that would greet some unexpected and grievous calamity .- Pennsylvanian. But all are now becoming convinced that it is a blessing in disguise." To their honor be it spoken, the friends of Messrs. was as ridiculous as it was hypocritical. General Scott and Mr. Secretary Graham, it is ow understood, will continue to hold their preent offices till after the result of the Presidential election shall be known, and perhaps a little onger. wisdom of the Whig Convention in the mination of General Scott is manifested by the forlorn looks of our locofoco opponents. Their lengthened visages speak volumes in favor of its propriety. Fearing his popularity with the masses, they have, from the very time his name has been used in connexion with the Presidency, opened the flood-gates of their abuse and poured forth the full tide of their snake-like bitterness upon him, hoping thereby to defeat his nomination in the Convention. Failing in this, we presume that now the old locofoco farce of 1848 will be played over again, and hypocritical tears by the gallon will be shed in their generous sympathy for Fillmore and Webster.

In General Scott we have a candidate of whom the Whig party and the country may well be proud. Next to Clay, no man has a firmer hold upon the affections of his party, and above all others has he the affections of the American people. From earliest childhood-ay, even from the cradle, has the name of General Scott been as familiar as the household words of liberty. It has been whispered by us in infancy around the fireside of our fathers, and the mother's song was not unmixed with his story; pointing to him, standing far up, erect, upon the bill of fame, she has directed the footsteps of young ambition to follow in his tracks.

With such a candidate, and with such a platform as has been adopted, comprehensive as the lainest fact, clear, concise, broad as the Union and in its length reaching from the boundaries of Maine to the furthest limits of the South, we can but succeed. Our candidate for Vice President, William A. Graham, of North Carolina, is one whom the Whigs, and all those of both the parties who are favorable to the preservation of the Union, must confess to combine the elements of popularity. Honored by the people of the "Old North State"

A Flurry. The Washington Union says: "Our statement that General Scott's nomination was the triumph of sectionalism in the Whig ranks seems to have made a flurry in some quarters."

Yes, the old bero's nomination bas indeed created a divil of a "flürry" in certain locofoco quarters. Poor Pierce!—comparatively a very bscure, unknown man: a week of confusion, des erate counsels, and forty-nine ballots raised him from the crowd of subalterns, among whom he has been heretofore lost-is thrown completely in the shade which is cast from the glorious achievements and world-wide renown of Winfield Scott. All the locofoco calculations of heroizing their hero, in the event of the nomination of Fillmore, the model President, or Webster, the great American civilian, who remains the same in opinion, in principle, and position, have been completely upset; and in their bewilderment, chagrin, and mortification, we see them wofully complaining of the Whig candidate, the Whig Convention, and the Whig platform-dreading the first, surpassed in the second, and envying the beauty, symmetry, and nationality of the third. But all this "flurry" is not to be compared to the flurry that will be, when Scott and Graham shall be elevated to those prominent positions in the government of national affairs which they already occupy in the hearts of the people. Their names form a tower of strength and inspire their friends with a firm and unshaken faith in the reality of ultimate

Who is Franklin Pierce!

The Detroit Free Press flies at its "mast-head" the name of Gen. Franklin L. Pierce as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. The Toledo Republican goes in strong for Gen. Franklin A. Pierce. The Madison Democrat, on its part, hurras for Gen. Franklin W. Pierce. The triumphs of art have provided a method of making the people know whom they are to vote for not formerly possessed. We see it stated that as soon as Pierce was informed of his nomination, his friends ran with him to a daguerreotype office, and set the artist at work in right good earnest to inform the country who Franklin Pierce is! The above papers had not received the relic .- Portland Inquirer.
